

The Enchanting Story of New Name

Neapolitan Novels: A Journey Through Love, Loss, and Rebirth

The New Name Neapolitan Novels are a series of four novels by Italian author Elena Ferrante, published between 2011 and 2015. The novels tell the story of two women, Lila and Elena, who grow up in a poor neighborhood of Naples, Italy, in the 1950s. The novels follow the women through their childhood, adolescence, and adulthood, as they navigate the challenges of love, loss, and rebirth.

The Four Novels in the Series

- My Brilliant Friend (2011)
- The Story of a New Name (2012)
- Those Who Leave and Those Who Stay (2013)
- The Story of the Lost Child (2015)

Each novel in the series is a standalone story, but the novels are also connected by their characters and themes. The novels explore the complex relationship between Lila and Elena, as well as the challenges of growing up in a poor neighborhood. The novels also examine the themes of love, loss, and rebirth, as the characters navigate the challenges of life.
